

The Learning Network of Vermont

Arlyn Bruccoli, VT DOE

Peter Drescher, VT DOE

Paul Garstki, NE Computer Systems

History.. Briefly

- ILN
 - Dedicated ATM connection
- Title IID grant to revitalize
 - NE Computer Systems
 - LNV is IP based

Current LNV Status

- Infrastructure in Montpelier
- 20 school sites currently-up
- 20 school sites in process
- Online scheduling system
- Organizer can control meeting
- Initial set-up phase ends Sept 30th

Connecting -- Next Steps

- Eligibility
- Technical requirement
- Connect now and over summer

LVN Vision

- School to School Collaborations (within VT & around the world)
- Connect students to high quality content
- Access to additional course offerings
- Educational Meetings

Reducing driving/meeting times

- Available statewide -- focus on geographic distribution to serve all of VT

Involving Educators in LNV

- Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration (CILC)
 - Content Dollar Bank
 - Example: Ohio Historical Society
 - Professional Development on video-conferencing and CILC
 - Collaboration Center
- Vermont-based professional development

Moving forward...

- Strategies for success

LVN Things to Know

- Set up phase now to Sept. 30
- Requires
 - One TV
 - One videoconferencing camera (e.g. LVN Polycom)
 - One ethernet cable and Internet connection
- CILC pre-paid content

Contact information

- Northeast Computer Systems
 - Tim King, Paul Garstki 802-626-1050
- Vermont Department of Education
 - Arlyn Bruccoli 802-828-0223
 - Peter Drescher 802-828-5149
- www.learn.vermont.gov

